The Mammovan is coming on May 31! Mark your calendar if you need a mammogram. More information to follow.

The first week of April, children are invited to play our live-size Candy Land game! Come and have fun, check out a book and get a ticket for a free small cone at the Leetonia Dairy Queen!

The Leetonia Community Public Library is now fine free – overdue fines on materials will no longer be charged, old fines are wiped out! You are still responsible for lost items. Two week checkout items like video games, books, DVDs with 3 discs or more is now three weeks! One renewal is allowed and items will be held on the reserve shelf for one week – if you can't come in to pick it up within a week, we will put the item(s) in one of our outdoor lockers for you, ask us for details.

The Leetonia Community Public Library is joining the "1000 Books before Kindergarten" program! Reading logs will be available at the library to keep track of your child's book count. Parents or others can read to the children while they are too young to read on their own. You can read the same book 5 times or read 5 different books and get credit. You will get prizes at various milestones along the way including having your child's name placed in honor in a brand new book! Check out this website <http://1000booksbeforekindergarten.org/> for more information.
